

When you purchase through links on our site, we may earn an affiliate commission.
Here's how it works.

Reviews > Clothing > Bike helmet reviews

Specialized Tone MIPS helmet review - no unnecessary extras and an equally minimalist styling

★★★★☆

An excellent urban helmet designed for people who want affordable comfort and safety during the morning commute

Newsletter

We value your privacy

We and our partners store and/or access information on a device, such as cookies and process personal data, such as unique identifiers and standard information sent by a device for personalised ads and content, ad and content measurement, and audience insights, as well as to develop and improve products.

With your permission we and our 271 partners may use precise geolocation data and identification through device scanning. You may click to consent to our and our partners' processing as described above. Alternatively you may access more detailed information and change your preferences before consenting or to refuse consenting.

Please note that some processing of your personal data may not require your consent, but you have a right to object to such processing. Your preferences will apply to this website only. You can change your preferences at any time by returning to this site or visit our privacy policy.

AGREE

REJECT ALL

MORE OPTIONS

A minimalist helmet that may not be to everyone's stylistic taste.

However, as a pragmatic and functional piece of kit, the Specialized Tone represents superb value for money, top-rated safety levels and comfort for commuting to work, running errands, shopping or rendezvousing with friends.

REASONS TO BUY

- + Great fit
- + Highest 5-Star Virginia Tech Helmet Rating
- + MIPS protection
- + Astonishing value
- + Simple, unfussy design will appeal to those who like pared-down simplicity and practicality

REASONS TO AVOID

- 'Marmite' styling
- Lack of vents could be uncomfortable on very hot days
- Just three size options